Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 5, 7, 8, 11, 13, 14, 17, 19, 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chen.

Chen discloses an assembly comprising: an electronic component 37, 39, 59 mounted on a circuit board 51, a heat sink assembly 25 for cooling the component and being in thermal communication with the component, a retainer 2 securing the heat sink 25 to the component; the retainer has a base portion, a plurality of arms 9 coupled to the base portion and a plurality of tabs 11 coupled to the plurality of arms 9, each of the plurality of tabs moveable between a first position and a second position relative to the base portion, the plurality of arms and the plurality of tabs capture at least a portion of the heat sink 25 and at least a portion of the component securing the heat sink to the component; the base portion the tabs and the arms are integrally formed, the arms comprise latches 11 allowing deflection of the arms 9 upon placement of the heat sink in contact with the latch and allowing retraction of the arms.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2835

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3, 6, 9, 12, 15, 18, 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chen.

Chen discloses the claimed invention except having tabs to be positioned between adjacent fins and except non-conductive retainer material. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to dispose tabs between adjacent fins as disclosed in several prior art references cited in attached US PTO 892 form which are not applied at this time; and it would have been also obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use non-conductive material for retainer, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4, 10, 16, 21 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record is silent regarding a rail to be engaged with a slot along perimeter portion of the component.
